Thanks for reading this crappy scan from me.

Notes: Please do not distribute this outside of Red Madness Forum. I'm indecisive so yeah, DON'T.

If I see scans elsewhere I will consider stop scanning; if you think otherwise, find me at my site: <http://www.redmadness.net>.

La Esperanza

George is more than strange – he's genuine and kind to everyone that crosses his path. Unfortunately the "impression" that he has of himself is that he is stupid. He is smart, but he is smart about looking through the surface of things to see the innermost feelings of his own. They're what? George looks at the world around him and sees how much things are not what they seem to be. He is not a person who is hard to find when you need a friend, and he is not a person who is hard to find when you need a friend.

La Esperanza is a collection of short stories by young people and their friends. It's a collection of stories that are not just about the world, but about the people who live in it. It's a collection of stories that are not just about the world, but about the people who live in it. It's a collection of stories that are not just about the world, but about the people who live in it.
